As the premier processing and packaging event in Asia, Propack Asia 2026 – the International Food Processing and Packaging Machinery Exhibition – will be a "one event, two venues" showcase. It will first be held in Hengqin, China on 16-18 November 2026, and then continue at the Cotai Expo The Venetian Macao China on 18-20 November 2026. The event provides processing and packaging solutions to food, beverage, dairy, FMCG, pharmaceutical, cosmetic and other industries, and is the best place to explore the latest machines, systems, technologies and applications enabled by cutting-edge developments.

Co-located with AHSE (Asia International Hotel and Catering Expo), FBAF Asia (25th International Food Beverage Asia Fair), HORECA MACAO (Hotel Restaurant Catering Expo), Agroworld Macao, provides you with a gateway meeting end users from food, Beverage, processing, packaging to Hotel Restaurant Catering products. With a comprehensive range of exhibits, international business platform, extensive supporting program, the entire industry meets here.

Book your space early and grab your share of the China market and explore Asia's untapped potential.

At the previous exhibition, excellent overseas enterprises from the UK, Italy, Spain, Japan, China, Austria, Malaysia, India, Singapore and other countries were gathered. In 2026, the exhibition will further expand the number and scale of overseas exhibition groups, with a planned exhibition area of 60,000 square meters and over 1,000 participating enterprises and brands. It will also bring processing and packaging machinery, production technologies, innovative R&D achievements and sustainable packaging concepts that represent internationally advanced standards, to meet the Chinese market's demands for equipment production efficiency, precision control as well as diversified and complex requirements.
